Hopscotch

Sequential acceleration of Q2 GM organic growth

Gross Margin, group's key indicator, maintained a solid pace of growth at +16% YoY, after +19.1% in Q1 YoY. However, on a like-for-like basis, GM accelerated and increased by +9%, a sequential acceleration after the healthy +4.1% organic in Q1. All group's activities are growing, but Events particularly stand out in H1, driven by the Olympics, in our opinion. Furthermore, we factor in the buyout of Sopexa's minority interests (finalized at the beginning of May 2024) in our projections, with an increase in our EPS of c.+9% over 3 years. The group remains on the path of acquisitions, with a solid balance sheet and strong cash-flow generation. We reiterate Strong Buy and raise our TP from € 30.8 to € 31.5. The valuation is attractive at 4.5x NTM EV/EBITDA and 8.5x NTM PE.

Q2 2024 gross margin up +16% YoY of which +9% organic

Group published Q2 2024 sales up +3.5% to €74.4 M (after +8.3% YoY to €55.2 M in Q1). However, gross margin, key indicator of activity, was up stronger by +16% to €27.5 M (after +19.1% YoY in Q1 to €21.8 M). Additionally, we calculate that organic gross margin growth accelerated to +9% in Q2, after +4% in Q1. In H1, gross margin grew by +7% organically (Hopscotch Interface Tourism contributed €4.3 M). All group's activities are growing, but Events particularly stood out in H1.

2024 benefits from Paris Olympic Games

The biggest impact of Paris Olympic Games should be on FY2024. Activity should also be supported by the Paris Motor Show, among other major events.

We factor in Sopexa's minorities buyout: EPS c.+9%

We've factored in the accretive impact of Sopexa's minority interests' buyout. We estimate a \in 6M cost financed by debt with a c.9% average positive impact on our EPS estimates. Balance sheet remains solid despite the latest acquisitions (Interface Tourism and Sopexa's minorities) with a gearing of 32% and strong visible and regular cash-flow generation.

PO raised to € 31.5 - Strong Buy reiterated

We project +23% CAGR of net profit over the next 3 years. We increase our PO from € 30.8 to € 31.5. The stock trades on 4.5x 12M-forward EV/EBITDA and 8.5x 12M-forward PE, attractive levels given the group's dynamics, particularly this year with the Olympics, and the achieved level of turnover significantly higher than in the past (2023 sales at € 272 M vs. average turnover 2015-2019 at € 159 M) while the rate of EBIT/GM doubled (10.5% in 2022 vs. 4.8% on average over 2015-2019). In addition, the group remains on the path of acquisitions, with solid balance sheet and cash-flow generation. We reiterate Strong Buy.
